

THIRD YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., MONDAY, APRIL 16, 1894.

ONE CENT.

IT'S SO IF IT'S IN
THE LEDGER.

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For The Next Twenty-Four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S
WEATHER SIGNALS.
WIND—STRENGTH—RAIN.
Blue—RAIN or SNOW.
With Black Arrows—WILL WARMER GROW.
If Black's BENEATH—COLDER—WILL BE.
Unless Black's shown—no chance we'll lose.
The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 6 o'clock to-morrow evening.

WE'LL BE HAPPY THEN.
When it rains because we like it—Get warm because we want it—When we order all our business—Tell the lightning where to strike.
The world will be a jolly world
To all the maids and men;
With life so long the whole day long.
And we'll be happy then!
When crops grow of their own accord, Without a plow or hoe;
When bill collectors come to bring The lengthy bills we owe.
The world will be a jolly world
To all the maids and men;
And birds will sing and cash will ring,
And we'll be happy then!

For treatment of gonorrheal diseases and syphilis apply to Dr. W. S.

Dr. B. S. RICE, while driving at Cattletown Park, was thrown out of his race car and badly shaken up.

As EVERYBODY is liable to derangement of the stomach and bowels, the need of Ayer's Pills is universal. They are the best cathartic.

Mr. RUMBAUGH is a Covington builder and struck the son of Mr. Greeley in the eye for fooling around a building he was putting up. It was a glass eye that he hit, and it was broken by the blow and badly lacerated the optic cavity. In a suit the jury gave Greeley $300 damages.

The jury was remembering. Messrs.
John T. Martin & Co., the reliable clothing, have purchased a liberal number of tickets on the guessing contest at Zanesville, O., when $6,000 will be ditributed among the lucky guessers. With every cash purchase of $1 Messrs. John T. Martin & Co. give one ticket. They cost you nothing and you buy goods better and cheaper than—here.

WILLIAM PHRY, aged 18, was fatally injured by falling on a circular saw near Portsmouth.

The total assessment at Lexington this year is $14,953,300, an increase of $627,570 compared with 1893.

TIMOTHY KITT and Miss Idona Davis of Lewis county will be married tomorrow morning at St. Patrick's church.

MISS DAY and Miss Helm, while out riding yesterday afternoon, were thrown from a buggy and slightly bruised.

JOSEPH A. WALTON has resigned as Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee of Bracken. His place has not yet been filled.

At the last weekly meet of the Danville Gun Club Dr. H. M. Marsh presented the champion shot. Only four out of twenty-five birds escaped him.

There will be prayer-meeting at Mitchell's Chapel tomorrow evening, close meeting Friday evening and preaching Sunday morning and evening, when candidates for membership will be received.

WENNER before did a whole week elapse without a single arrest being made in Mayville? Yet that is the record of last week. Did the Pife meetings have anything to do with the moral revolution?
Let the doubting Thomases answer.

The Department of Agriculture gives the condition of wheat on the first day of April as 86.7 per cent. for the entire country, while at the same date last year it was only 77.4. This confirms that the wheat crop of the country was not materially damaged by the March freeze.

WALTER WILLIAMS, aged 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Williams, died yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock. He had been ill for some time. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock from the residence, Second and Union streets, with services by the Rev. E. B.
Coke.

The suit of Greenup county against the C. and O. for the reduction of ferry rates was decided in favor of the railroad by Judge Harbison. And almost immediately after the decision was rendered the railroad company voluntarily reduced the rates.

MISS BESSIE WADSWORTH SENDS 130-000 STAMPS FOR MISS ROSE.

People read THE LEDGER!
No better proof of this can be given than is found in the numerous and liberal contributions of postage stamps sent in to this office in response to the appeal in behalf of Miss Dollie Rose of Manchester.

But liberal as have been the responses it has remained for Miss Beattie Wals worth to rise to the purpose alluded to in the above notice.

Saturday she sent us one hundred and thirty thousand stamps, all nicely arranged in packages of 100 each.

They can be seen in the window of THE LEDGER office for a few days, and they are well looking upon.

For this "show of love" we are sure Miss Wadsworth will receive the prayers of the afflicted young lady for whose relief the stamps are intended.

THE FIVE MEETINGS.
They Closed Last Night With a Phenomenal Attendance.

The Pife revival has closed.
That the Evangelist did much good by his presence here will not be denied.

All the services yesterday the houses were packed.
Last night Mr. Pife preached to an immense crowd at the First Baptist Church, and afterward he addressed an "overflowing" meeting at the First Presbyterian Church, concluding the services with a farewell at 10 o'clock.

He left this morning for Charleston, W.
Va., where he will preach tonight, after which he goes to his home at Charlotte, N. C.

All the congregations that have been represented in the union services that have been held in the First Baptist Church will meet this evening in their respective houses of worship for the purpose of receiving any applications for membership that may be made and for the purpose of giving any additional services it would be wise for them to hold. A full attendance of the congregations of these various churches is earnestly requested. Let the Christian Endeavorers and other societies also be present, as there will be an especial work for them.

MISS POLLARD WINS.

JUDGMENT AGAINST THE DIS-HONORABLE WM. C. P.
BRECKINRIDGE.

The Jury Gives the Girl $15,000—But What Will She Get?—Willie Moore for a New Trial, and is Still a Democrat.

Judge Wilson finished his argument in the Breckinridge-Pollard trial at half past 3 o'clock Saturday.

Judge Bradley then delivered his charge to the jury, which retired shortly after 3.
The jurors were not so long in agreeing upon a verdict as was anticipated, and after being out only an hour and twenty-eight minutes returned a judgment in favor of the plaintiff, fixing the damages at $15,000.

Colonel Breckinridge rose slowly to his feet.

All those who saw his face said it was nearly as white as his beard, but his voice was as clear as usual when he spoke in a hesitating way, saying, "I do not know the practice of this Court, but I wish to give the usual notice of a motion for a new trial."

Miss Pollard was not in the Courtroom, and her attorneys reported that she did not care to say anything about the verdict.

When a messenger reached her room with the news she exclaimed: "Oh, isn't it good, isn't it good?" and then burst into sobs.

Major Butterworth said, "I don't care to say anything," and walked dejectedly away toward his office.

That Miss Pollard will not be financially bettered by the result of her case is probable, because it is well understood and has been said on trial that Breckinridge has no property. He has lived up to his income for years, and although his wife has money, it does not seem likely that she will care to expend it to satisfy this judgment.

Notwithstanding the verdict, which was wholly unexpected to him, Breckinridge persists in remaining a candidate for re-election.

Will the Ashland District endorse him?
We will see what we will see.

FRANKFORT must be in a bad fix. She wants either Mr. Moody or "Sham" Jones to hold a revival there. What's the matter with having both the two of 'em.

TARIFF AND POLITICS.
Why They Should Be Separated For
The Nation's Welfare.

At the annual meeting of the Political Science Club in New York the subject was discussed, "Should the Tariff question Be Taken Out of Politics?" Congressman Joseph C. Hendrix of Brooklyn, who was the principal speaker, discussed it in an elaborate manner. He said in part:

"The suggestion that the Tariff question should be taken out of politics is gratefully received by every man who is in touch with our industrial conditions, and is conscious of the dangerous stimulation and resulting reaction incident to the adoption of a high Tariff or of the collapse and uncertainty attending the settlement of a different policy. That a practical way exists I have no doubt; that it will ever be adopted depends upon the power for good suffering possessed by the American people. Business waits today for certainty. In a few months we will be in a new Congressional campaign.
Whatever is settled now may be completely torn apart. To keep the Tariff in politics means that 355,401 establishments representing $6,324,175,305 invested capital, using $3,158,989,353 worth of materials produced by other industries and putting on the markets $9,370,107,624 worth of goods, must be operated with a degree of uncertainty which amounts to 4,711,832 employees, whose annual wages amount to $2,282,828,365.

"If the Tariff should be laid according to a defined principle agreeable to the common sense of an industrial Nation, it is reasonable to conclude that such minor modifications as trade conditions dictated might be made by expert officials without discussing the whole subject from anise seed to yams, at every crossroads from Maine to Texas, and running hot plow shares through every factory enterprise in America.

"I think that all fair minded men will agree that the Tariff question should be taken out of politics. Political sagacity, if not political science, should point out the way, for it is sure to produce a mistake around the neck of both parties and may cause such intolerable suffering and cost as to wisely reconstruct party lines and much social suffering and confusion."

John Wheeler was in Cincinnati Saturday.

caster.

ing to Cincinnati.

morning for Chicago, to be gone several days.

urday to visit relatives at Ripley and Russellville, O.

at Tangletown, has returned to her home in Aberdeen.

Miss Lottie Kirk came down from Millersburg to spend Sunday with her

Miss Sallie Fieig returned home yesterday evening after a most pleasant visit to the Misses Childs of East Third street.

in Bourbon several years, is spending a few days in this city. He will take up his residence in Gallipolis in a few days.

of Portsmouth, Mrs. Fannie Lambert of Cumberland, Md., and Ben Davis of High School, left for Lexington Saturday, where by the advice of her physician she goes for a short period of convalescence.

Building Association Receipts.
The following of the several Building Associations of this city Saturday night were as follows:

| Mason Contractors | $ 517.20 |
| Limestone         | 31.39     |

WHY WOOL DROPPED.
Eli Perkins Explains the Reason for the Decline in Prices.

"When I was in Australia and Thibet a year ago," says Eli Perkins, "I found why the price of wool fell in the United States in spite of the McKinley Tariff of 10 cents a pound."

"What caused this?" was asked.
"It was the wonderful increase of sheep in Australia."

"What caused this increase?"
"A mania struck England to raise sheep in Australia. Thousands of young Englishmen went there and established sheep ranches. It was the fact. Englishmen were crazy to put their money into sheep ranches in Australia. The climate is mild there and sheep thrive. The lambs all lived. Sheep could be had for $5 a week and no more. When I was there Australia already had 70,000,000 sheep and a population of only 4,000,000 people."

"And how many sheep were there in the United States?"
"We had only 45,000,000 sheep and 65,000,000 people. This made too many sheep and too much wool for the world's market. The result was wool went down in Thibet, India, Ceylon, Australia and finally all over the world."

"What was wool worth then?"
"Why, cargoes were shipped from Australia and Thibet for from 7 to 15 cents a pound. As soon as they paid the 10 cents duty to get it into the United States these foreign wools were worth 17 to 23 cents—the price of our own wool."

"Then our wool was 10 cents a pound higher than Thibet wool?"
"Certainly the wool fell in value in the United States on account of the immense crop of wool made on cheap public lands in Australia, but our wool has always been 10 cents a pound higher than foreign wool. The McKinley Bill has benefited our farmers. When the Wilson Bill takes off this duty you will see our wool will be only worth as much as cheap Australia wool, with the freight added. When Mr. Wilson talks about free wool in America he is talking foolishness. Wilson says 'free wool will enable our manufacturers to send cloth to Europe.'"

"Will it do that?"
"No; we will never ship one yard of cloth or one hat shirt, or one yard of carpet to Europe till we have their low wages—yes, less than their low wages—because we will have to pay the freight.
A child can see that. The American farmer sees the awful drop of wool sales the Wilson Bill causes, and he will soon have an object lesson by seeing his wool competing with wool worth just 10 cents a pound less than his has been."

MISS DOLLIE ROSE.
She Thanks "The Ledger" Readers
For Stamps They Have Sent.

MANCHESTER, O., April 12th, 1894.
Editor Public Ledger: Received a large lot of cancelled stamps by express, for which I am very grateful and wish you to thank your generous readers who have brought your paper for their kindness.

I receive stamps every day, and if all or even the half of them were good it would not take long to get the 1,000,000.
I often lose over half.

The stamps should not be torn, and the perforation must not be cut off. Stamps from Government envelopes should be cut out square and not round, with a margin on all sides about one quarter of an inch wide.

I am surprised to see the interest the kind people are taking in collecting these stamps for me. I am very grateful to you, kind Editor, and also your readers.

Do you know the number of stamps that were sent in box? There were 5,000 in first package. Dollie Rose.

[There were about 75,000 stamps in the box to which Miss Rose refers.—Ed.
LEDGER.]

WHY IS THIS TRUST?

Sam Stairs Becomes a Strong Advocate of Protection.

This paper has more than once noticed that Democrats suddenly become Protectionists as when the effects of the Free-trade policy are brought to their own front doors.

What The Reporter says of Augusta may be truly said of the United States.
The strange part of it is, however, that the Augusta Editor doesn't want his own fellow countrymen, who do business less than fifty miles away and who pay taxes to support the Government of this country, to reap any trade from his town, while he insists on a policy that encourages the whole American Nation to buy goods from men who do business less than fifty miles away and who pay not a cent for the support of this Government.

Just hear Sam Stairs the Protectionist:

ABOUT TRADING AT HOME.
Augusta Reporter—Gus Wolfe, the clothing man of Cincinnati, was in town Saturday. He reports that the Free-trade policy of $300 that day, and took orders for $600 worth of clothing on a previous trip few days ago, taking out of Augusta $900 a few weeks. Augusta's profit in the transaction is derived from wearing city made clothes and the price of two days' board for one man.

We have nothing to say against Mr.
Wolfe. He reports that he is in the business, but we do say there is too much trade of every description going away, from this city, and too much money ought to be kept at home, and kept circulating among our own people.
